HOUSE REJECTS AMENDMENTS

Patron of Enabling Act Wants Final Bill Drawn By Committee.

SENT TO CONFERENCE.

Plan to Substitute "For Local Option" in Place of "Against State-Wide" Prohibition Disapproved.

Amendments Rejected.

(Special Dispatch to Gazette.)

Richmond, Va., Feb. 9.—The House today rejected the remainder of the senate amendments to the enabling act. The measure is now expected to go to conference.

Richmond, Va., Feb. 9.—Ten of the Senate amendments to the Williams' enabling act were rejected Saturday by the House of Delegates, including the amendments inserting on the ballot the term "for local option" in lieu of the term "against State-wide prohibition," the clause specifying who shall be eligible in the proposed election, and the provision that should the majority be for state-wide prohibition, it shall take effect on May 1, 1917. On motion of the patron of the bill, Judge Martin Williams, the House adjourned at 2 o'clock without taking up the other four Senate amendments, which related to the manufacture of wine and its by-products, and of beer, in this State; the exception of cider, and the provision for preparing lists of qualified voters eligible to take part in the special election and for posting them for thirty days before the election.

The line-up of the opposing forces was fairly shown on the first amendment, which was unimportant and consequential in its nature. On page 1, line 12, of the printed bill, the amendment struck out the words "fourth Tuesday in the next ensuing month of September" and inserted in lieu thereof "time hereinafter fixed for holding same." It was understood to be a mere verbal change, a later clause of the bill fixing the date.

The roll was called on concurrence in the first amendment, and the House refused to concur—ayes, 29; noes, 54.

NEWS OF THE DAY

Driven from their haunts by the Kenyon law, many inmates of Washington's "underworld" have begun parading the city's most prominent thoroughfares. The police have started a campaign to close up other "questionable places" in the District. Strict surveillance will be kept by the police. But where the police will find a stumbling block in enforcing laws already on the statute books will be in breaking up the commercialization of vice in the guise of "apartments," "private home" and "hotels."

Fire early yesterday destroyed the Minnesota annex elevator, in Chicag, owned by the Armour Grain Company, burned 1,500,000 bushels of grain, and endangering neighboring elevator freight carriers, at nearby wharves, and buildings. Estimates of the loss range from $1,000,000 to $1,500,000.

Charred bones and several metal buttons and buckles from clothing were the only traces discovered of the bodies of the forty passengers and crew of the train wrecked in Cumbre tunnel of the Mexico and Northwestern Railway Wednesday night. A revised list places the number of Americans killed at fifteen.

A great throng, rich and poor, statesman and laborer, crowded Poli's Theatre, Washington, yesterday afternoon to its utmost capacity at the initial meeting of the mid-winter Bible Conference to hear two of the world's greatest disciples of peace preach the doctrine of the Bible. There were but two speakers yesterday—the Rev. Dr. G. Campbell Morgan, of London, and Secretary of State William Jennings Bryan, Dr. Morgan spoke first brilliantly and impressively. He and Mr. Bryan were introduced by Vice-President Marshall, who presided, and in that easy manner and soft English accent the distinguished Britisher spoke for nearly an hour. It seemed but half that time.

Spontaneous combustion started a fire shortly after 4 o'clock yesterday afternoon on the second floor of the three-story brick building at the northwest corner of 10th and little B street, northwest, just opposite the farmers' stalls of Center Market, Washington. Prompt work by the firemen saved much valuable property. The building was occupied by two produce firms and a feed store. The loss on stock of the three concerns will not exceed $3,000 and on the building probably $500.

Returning unexpectedly to their country home, 18 miles south of San Antonio, Texas, Charles Baumberger, president of the San Antonio Portland Cement Company, and Charles A., his son, the latter of the Alamo Cement Company, found S. Birum Brales, a Spanish missionary in the house. What they saw prompted either the father or son to shoot, and Brales fell in the front yard. He died last night. Baumberger and his son, among the wealthiest and most prominent business men in San Antonio, surrendered to the sheriff. Neither of them would make a statement regarding the shooting.

L. E. SMOOT'S NEW TUG.

L. E. Smoot has placed the contract for the building of the hull and house for a new tug boat for service on the Potomac river with W. M. Davis, & Son, of Solomon's Island, Md., and it is expected the keel for the new craft will be laid within the next ten days or two weeks. While its dimensions have not been definitely decided upon, the new craft will be about 62 feet long. 15 fet beam and 6.5 feet deep in the hold. The hull will be built of oak and will be exceptionally heavy, to suit the work to which it is to be employed —towing sand and gravel-laden lighters.

Mr. Smoot is having plans prepared for the boiler and engine of the new tug, and the contract for the new machinery will pe placed shortly. The tug will be read for service about the middle of the coming summer.

Divers' View of Sunken Steamer.

Norfolk, Va., Feb. 9.—In the opinion of expert divers, who have thoroughly examined the wreck of the Old Dominion steamer Monroe, sunk in collision with the Nantucket, the bodies of the 41 victims, as well as the cargo can be saved. The vessel itself is a total loss

MASS MEETING TO ABOLISH SALOONS

Rev. James Cannon Scores Liquor Traffic in Petersburg Church.

W. H. MANN PRESIDES.

Former Governor Urges Active Fight Against Saloons—Says Three-Fourth of Crime Caused by Liquor.

Petersburg, Va., Feb. 9.—The mass meeting in the interest of State-wide prohibition held in the First Baptist Church yesterday afternoon attracted a large congregation of foes of the liquor traffic.

The meeting was presided over by ex-Governor William Hodges Mann, and was opened with prayer by the Rev. J. A. McClure, of the Second Presbyterian church. Mr. Mann, in the course of his rembarks, urged the support of the Anti-Saloon League by the people, and referred to the time when he inaugurated the fight against the saloon evil in Virginia that only two ministers, one Baptist and one Methodist, as far as he knew, stood with him.

The ex-governor stated that during his administration as governor Virginia at least three-fourths of the crime committee within the State could be traced directly to the liquor evil.

In introducing Rev. James Cannon, Jr., Judge Mann stated that it was a surprise to him that the saloon has been allowed to exist so long.

Dr. Cannon, in his opening remarks, referred to a section of the city through which he passed enroute to church, was exclusively devoted almost entirely to debauching the state of North Carolina by the continuous shipping into that state of intoxicants from these places. He referred to the fact that there are nearly two saloons in Petersburg to every church and that the saloon prepare three young people for hell to every one saved by the church. He stated that the real battle was between the church and the saloon, and that the church should therefore give of its means to the cause.

Dr. Cannon directed the thoughts of his hearers to two years ago, when the senate of Virginia defeated the enabling act, and the adverse circumstances under which the Anti-Saloon League had to go out to make a renewed fight for its passage. He stated that the league had won such a decisive victory that the senate would not dare disregard the people's wishes.

In reference to the amendments tacked on the enabling act by the Senate, Dr. Cannon stated the Anti-Saloon League objected to anything in the way of wineries or breweries or anything else tending to create a sentiment favorable to the use or sale of intoxicants.

Dr. Cannon, in closing his remarks, stated that he hoped that on the fourth Tuesday in November the people of Virginia would vote as decisive a majority against the saloon evil as did West Virginia recently, when the State went dry by a majority of 92,000 votes.

Rev. J. D. McAllister, secretary of the anti-salon oLeague, followed in an forceful address setting forth the objects of the league during the state-wide campaign, and urged the support of the people in financing the great battle. The meeting was dismissed with prayer by Judge Mann.

ARRIVAL OF COLD WAVE.

Brisk Northwest Wind Saturday Night Ushers in Frigid Conditions.

The polar wave which was presaged by the Weather Bureau, arrived on schedule time Saturday night, when the mercury in the thermometer dropped rapidly. The skies, however were clear, and the "heavy snow" which it was stated would accompany the blizzard seems to have been deflected elsewhere, although we had been told it was heading for us with rapid strides.

The wind of Saturday night ceased to blow heavily before midnight and conditions were tranquil but cold. The weather yesterday was bright and frigid, with moderate winds until after 9 o'clock when the giants of the north again turned their concle shells upon this vicinity. The wind subsided later and this morning broke clear and cold.

No hope for a cessation of the cold spell was held out last night, the weather forecast for today reading: "fair and continued cold weather."

Winter's backbone is still a long way from broken, according to weather experts.

The general distribution of atmospheric pressure over the North American Continent and the adjacent oceans, is such as to indicate temperatures considerably below the seasonal average until the middle of the week east of the Rocky Mountains and temperatures near the seasonal average on the Pacific slope.

The weather will be generally fair during the first half of the week in the Plains States, the Central Valleys and the North Atlantic States In the Gulf and South Atlantic States the weather will be overcast with probably rains along the Gulf and South Atlantic Coast until Wednesday.

The next disturbance of importance to cross the United States will appear on the North Pacific Coast Tuesday, attended by general rains; it will prevail over the middle west about Thursday and the Eastern States Friday or Saturday; this disturbance will be preceded by general reaction to higher temperatures and be attended by general rain in southern and snow and rain in the Northern States east of the Rocky Mountains.

It will be followed by colder weather, which will make its appearance in the Northwest Thursday.

CARDINALS WIN GAME.

Defeat Engineer Corps by Score of 58 to 8.

The Cardinals are now playing great basketball and by defeating the strong and heavy weight basketball quint of the Engineer Corps U. S. Army, from Washington Barracks, Saturday night, in Armory Hall, by the score of 58 to 8, is sure proof that the maroon and gray lads are going at a rapid pace and they will make any team hustle to beat them. With Shalin playing center for the Cardinals the team has been greatly strengthened, and as he is an experienced and heady player his aid to the local boys has added new life to this popular winter game.

Charles Bopp, of Washington, who was a member of the "All South championship team," is the coach for the Cardinals, and his instructions have benefitted them greatly. The team is now composed of the following players:

Next Wednesday evening the Company "F" team, of the District of Columbia National Guard, will be the Cardinals opponents and a fine game is anticipated.

PREPARE FOR A DOUBLE FUNERAL

Aftermath of Tragedy in Newark, N.J., Last Friday night.

HUSBAND ARRESTED.

Hazel Herdman Who Murdered Mrs. Manning, Makes Confession Before Dying From Poison.

Newark, N. J., Feb. 9.—Two funerals, the aftermath of the Manning tragedy, which cost two lives, and wrecked two homes, will be held in Newark tomorrow.

One of them, in a fashionable Newark church, is for the wife who was slain through another's love for her husband. The other, in a dingy little mortuary chapel in Orange, is for her slayer, the despairing girl-mother, 19 years old, who took two lives in a fruitles effort to smooth the path of her nameless child.

And the man, for love of whom they both died, will wait in a cell, unable to honor the memory of either—the wife whose life he had wrecked or the girl who wrecked hers for him.

The evidence shows that Charles J. Manning knew of the murder of his wife by Hazel Herdman, who later took her own life by swallowing bichloride of mercury.

Hints that a letter found in Miss Herdman's pocket furnished evidence that Manning and the girl who had borne him a child, had decided upon a double suicide have been made.

Mannig is accused of being an accessorty to the murder of both before and after the fact. He told the police that he knew nothing of the Herdman girl's intention to kill his wife and destroy herself.

Hazel Herdman was an inkeeper's daughter. She confessed after taking a fatal dose of poison, that it was she who Friday night shot and killed Mrs. Harriet Manning. She said on her death bed at the Montclair hospital that she had killed the woman that Manning might marry her.

Manning they say, admitted his intimacy with the girl and that he was the father of her child. He eloped with her more than two years ago, and they were absent a month. After their return, her father at first disowned her.

CLAY PIPE CAUSES CANCER.

Abrasion of Man's Lip From Smoking Results in Death Ten Years Later.

Findlay, O., Feb. 9.—John J. Cahill's first and only experience with a clay pipe resulted in his death from cancer a day or two ago.

Ten years ago, Cahill, accustomed to a briar pipe, tried a clay at the urging of a friend. With the stem between his teeth he was grasping the bowl with his hand when a noise suddenly startled him and he suddenly jerked the pipe from his mouth. He had not moistened the stem as is customary, and a piece of flesh from the upper lip was torn off.

No attention was paid to the incident until months later, when the sore, which had refused to heal, became extremely painful. Despite efforts of physicians cancer developed, causing death.

MR. MONTAGUE'S ADDRESS.

Virginia Congressman is Listened to With Close Attention.

The men's meeting at Westminster Building yesterday afternoon was addressed by former Governor A. J. Montague, and about 300 men present heard him with great pleasure. He began by stating that he had no special theme, but desired to present, in a practical way, the supremacy of the heart over the mind. Great hearts have inspired the world and not brilliant minds. He said the affections of man went out in the exercise of good will and personal service. The speaker paid a glowing tribute to Jesus, the man of Galilee who dominated men by his great love.

This was one of the best of the many fine addresses delivered on Sunday afternoon at Westminster Building.

TO DRAW PLANS FOR TAX REFORM

Cost of Committee of Eighteen Causes Objection from Members.

BILLS ACCUMULATE

Much Congestion—One Hundred and Fifty Eight Bills Now Before Legislature Ready For Action.

Richmond, Feb. 9.—In his first message to the General Assembly, transmitted to both houses Saturday Governor Stuart directs attention to the pressing need for a general reform on the States's taxing system, and declares his readiness to call a special sesson of the Legislature to meet not later than January 12, 1915 for the purpose of enacting remedial legislation.

The Governor expresses the belief that it will not be possible in the forty days of the present se that still remain to draft a tax form plan which will even partially cure the deficiencies of the present system. He recommends the appointment of a commission to consider the subject in its entirety and report to the extraordinary session next year.

While there is practical agreement among members of the General Assembly that there should be an extra session for the consideration of t reform, there is a wide divergence views as to the constitution of a committee to sit between the adjournment of the present session and the assembling of the special session to study the subject and report bills reform the entire State system of taxation.

The matter was discussed for several hours by the House Finance Committee on Saturday afternoon in executive session, and the committee took the matter up again this morning.

Chairman Weaver said last night that there was practical unanimity in the committee as to the necessity of tax reform at an extra session, but that the committee had not yet reached an agreement as to the method by which the new plan of taxation should be prepared. He said he would suggest to his committee to-day the advisability of holding a joint conference with the Senate Finance Committee, of which Senator Echols is chairman, with a view of presenting to the General Assembly a definite plan of operation.

The resolution now pending before the House Finance Committee proposes the appointment of a joint committee of eighteen members, each of whom shall receive $10 a day while sitting, together with mileage and expenses. This special joint committee on taxation is "charged with the duty of fully considering the whole system of taxation which is now in force in the Commonwealth, and also the existing statutes for the assessment and collection of taxes and other revenues."

The calendar is congested, over 150 bills being ready for consideration.

QUARREL ENDS IN KILLING.

Saw Mill Employe Said to Have Murdered Fellow-Worker.

Havre De Grace, Md., Feb 9.—Jacob Kunkle, aged 30 years, of near Fawn Grove, was shot and almost instantly killed, Saturday evening by Charles Stonerider, aged 39 years, of Upper Cross Roads, Harford county. The weapon used was a shot gun, and the alleged murder took place in a shanty of Miller Brother's saw mill, at Cooptown, where both men were employed.

It is said that the men had several quarrels, the cause of which was only known to themselves, and that Saturday afternoon when they engaged in an argument which caused heated words, they came to blows. Stonerider, it is said, broke away from Kunkle, and running to the corner of the shanty, procured a shot gun, levelled it at his opponent, and pulled the trigger. Kunkle fell with a wound over the heart.

GRAND JURY FOR FEB. 19

Corporation Court Sets Date for Trial of Alleged Car Robbers

In the Corporation Court which convened this morning for the February term, Judge L. C. Barley ordered a special grand jury to be summoned for February 19th, when criminal indictments will be presented against four men.

The case of George S. Finch, charged with receiving stolen goods was set for trial for February 25th. He will be represented by Attorney Edmund Burke.

The case of John Peverill, charged with robbing freight cars, was set for February 19th. The case of Edward Waters, charged with a similar offense was continued until the March term.

The appeal of John Arrington from a decision of the police court was settled by the latter giving bond of $100 for his good behaviour for the next six months and by paying the costs in the case.

The case of Louis A. Tucker, charged with larceny, was continued, as some doubt has been expressed as to his sanity.

The case of Cox against Frank Shepherd and others, growing out of a boundry dispute which had been set for trial for today was continued until next Monday.

WANTS LICENSE REVOKED.

Corporation Attorney Says Finch Violated Laws.

In the Corporation Court today Samuel G. Brent corporation attorney, made a motion that the license of George S. Finch, a saloon keeper, at the corner of Royal and Princess Sts be revoked. Mr. Brent gave as the grounds for the motion that Finch was an improper person to conduct a saloon, that he sold liquor on Sunday, that liquor was sold to women and minors in violation of the Byrd act and that his place of business had been used to store stolen goods. Finch was recently indicted by the grand jury for receiving stolen goods and is out on bail.

Judge Barley will withhold action on Mr. Brent's motion until after Finch's trial, which has been set for February 19th.

Arguments on plea of demurrer of defendants in the case of Mary A. Cox vs. Frank Shepherd et als. were over ruled.

LIGHTS IN THE COUNTY.

To Have Two Lines Carrying Total of Two Hundred Lamps.

One line of lights now nearly ready to put into operation runs from the Alexandria city boundary through Cottage City, Lloyds Lane, Braddock Heights and adjoining subdivisions.

SWITCHING CHARGE.

Interstate Commerce Commission Fixes Rate at 20 cents on Ton from Potomac Yards to Alexandria

While denying the Southern Railway Company the right to increase the switching charges on cars of coal from Potomac yards to Alexandria from 11 cents to 35 cents a ton the interstate commerce commission, in an opinion established a rate of 20 cents a ton as reasonable. The new rates are ordered to become effective April 15 1914. John P. Agnew & Co. were the protestants in this case.

After stating that the coal can reach Potomas yards by two routes, one of which is over the main line of the Southern, the opinion states that "the real purpose of the increase is probably to divert traffic to the line of the respondent, but that element of the case was not especially presented and is not considered."

Mr. George Abbott left yesterday for El Paso, Texas, where he will spend the next three or four months.

NEWS OF THE OLD DOMINION

OLD WOMAN FATALLY BURNED.

Trips Going Down the Steps With a Lighted Lamp.

Cape Charles, Va., Feb. 9.—Miss Georgie Anderson, 78 years old, living with her niece, Miss Sarah Young Anderson, of Belle Haven, was fatally burned at 9:30 o'clock Saturday night and died yesterday evening at 6 o'clock.

Miss Anderson was going down stairs with a lighted lamp when she tripped and fell. The lamp exploded, igniting her clothing. Two servants in the house at the time became excited and rushed her to the pump, where they threw water on her, but did not extinguish the flames until after she dropped unconscious. She did not regain her senses.

MISSING TUG POTOMAC.

Anxiety is Felt For Naval Vessel Which Went to Aid Fishermen.

Norfolk, Va., Feb. 9.—All wireless stations along the Atlantic Coast are sending out appeals for news of the naval tug Potomac, which early in the week went out to try to rescue the crews of the American fishing fleet caught in the ice pack in the Bay of Islands, on the New Foundland Coast.

The Potomac, finding it impossible to get through the pack to the schooners, started for North Sydney Thursday night and should have reached that port Friday.

The tug carries a crew of thirty men.

DAVIDSON ATTACK ON CHURCH

Former Charlottesville Rector Delivers Address in Washington.

Declaring the organized church of to-day is the ally and servant of capitalism, is alienated from the masses of the people and does not exemplify a single one of the "apostolic virtues." Rev. Charles Steele Davidson, of Charlottesville, Va., the former Episcopal clergyman who burned his vestments and prayer-book at the entrance to Monticello last summer, yesterday afternoon addressed the secular league of Washington on "Why I Renounced the Ministry of the Episcopal Church.' Among other things Mr Davidson said "Money is today the church's God." I was associated with ten boards of vestrymen, and I have known but one of all those vestrymen to be spiritually-minded. The vestry is a financial body and therefore a destructive force of the very thing that the church pretends to build up. There are five orders in the church: Money lords, vestrymen, bishops, women and the clergy. The clergy are the last and most dependent.

The organized church and its clergy were unknown to the New Testament Christians The clergyman has become the official exponent of the visible system of organized Churchianity which is far removed from New Testament Christianity. Th' Episcopal church in this country to day is not Christian, is not Catholic and is not American, although it wants to change its name to the 'American Catholic church.' The church claims the apostolic succession and is anything but Catholic in the true sense, as is shown by its narrowness and exclusiveness in many respects. It is not American because it is not democratic and does not represent the ideals of Americanism. In many places you will see richly furnished and appointed churches and bishops' palaces (and they are palaces in many cases), and in the immediate vicinity you will see the long bread-line of Americans shivering in the cold for a bite of food Is the church in that situation either American or Christian?

"The question is vibrating throughout the world as to how men can preach truth and their convictions when they are dependent economically and socially upon men whom they must please This is the situation in which the clergymen are placed today. They must take their choice between preaching genuine Christainity and pleasing the men who support the church and exploit the people. Nothing is more rare than a free pulpit"

Negro Baptist Church Burned and Parsonage Wrecked.

Roanoke, Va., Feb. 9.—Fire yesterday morning destroyed High street Baptist Church (colored) and wrecked the parsonage next door, entailing a loss of $50,000.

The fire was one of the most serious that has visited this city in years and was discovered a few minutes after the Sunday morning service began. The auditorium was filled with the congregation but every one got out and there was no panic.

The building was erected in 1907 at a cost of $47,000. Insurance on the curch amounts to $20,000. The property adjoining the church was damaged to the extent of $2000. The church was the second largest colored church in the State.

The fire was due to a defective flue in the furnace.

PUFF OF AIR KILLS SLEEPER

Philadelphia, Pa. Feb. 9—While Alexander Fulton slept on a chair in his room at No. 329 North Fortieth street early yesterday morning, a draught from an open window extinguished the flame of a small gas stove in the room and he was asphyxiated.

Fulton, who was 24 years old, had evidently been reading before he fell asleep. Yesterday morning another roomer noticed an odor of gas and traced it to Fulton's room. When repeated knocking failed to elicit a response from the room the door was forced. Fulton was found sitting, apparently asleep, in a chair near a small stove from which gas was pouring

Richmond, Va., Feb. 9.— Formal charges against the enlisted members of the battalion band will be filed with Adjutant General Sale today by Major E. W. Bowles, commanding officer of the Richmond Light Infantry Blues, who had the musicians arrested after they failed to report at the armory on Monday night to play for a dance given in honor of the Virginia Military Institute cadets. The bandsmen, fifteen in number, were arrested by an armed guard of militiamen, assisted by city police, and were turned over to the civil authorities They were admitted to bail and will be tried before a general court-martial, the date of which will probably be set today by General Sale, who will also select its personnel.

While waiting to announce that he would prefer charges this morning. Major Bowles last night refused to discuss the matter further.

Richmond, Feb. 9—T. G. Avery, alias Benjamin MacDougal, thirty-three years old, whom the police assert is wanted for passing worthless checks and drafts in New York, Philadelphia and other cities, was arrested yesterday by Detective-Sergeants Wiltshire and Krengel at Murphy's Hotel on one charge of forgery and two of passing bad checks in this city. He is alleged to have forged a check for $500 on the Union Trust Company of New York, and to have defrauded the Richmond Bank and Trust Company out of $55 by giving two worthless checks, one for $15 and another for $40.

INCREASING INTEREST IN BIBLE STUDY.

The attempts of leaders of thought to turn the attention of the civilized world to the scriptures is an encouraging sign of the times, and the fact that so many persons respond to the general invitations to attend Bible conferences is encouraging not only to ministers of the gospel, but to political representatives of the nation; hence men now at the head of the government attend such gatherings, preside and deliver addresses. The overflowing meeting in a Washington theatre yesterday to hear Secretary Bryan and Dr. Morgan deliver addresses shows that the movement is gathering force. Vice President Marshall presided at this gathering.

Men who are placed in responsible positions and who are entrusted with the responsibility of guiding the ship of state know that if they can induce people to study the ancient writings, believe and enjoy them, the powers of evil which are in evidence in the way of socialism, anarchism and other menaces to law and order will be weakened, and the bulwarks of the nation strengthened.

These meetings are not confined to any of the large cities, but they are reaching out into all cities, one being scheduled to be held in Alexandria this week.

Nor is this movement confined to any one denomination, but is permeating all creeds. Plans are now being prepared for a revised edition of the Bible now used in Catholic Churches.

There are many books in the world, and they are being multiplied daily, but the Bible, though often neglected, or thrown into a temporary eclipse, ever and anon shoot from behind the clouds as brilliantly as it did in the days of Martin Luther, and, many, after having read all that is worth reading have acknowledged that it "the book," after all.

Evil men have at different times in the world's history foolishly imagined they could eliminate the scriptures from the world. The futility of such attempts was amply illustrated in the French Revolution. Voltaire boasted that he would erase it from the minds of men. It is suggestive that the room in which he wrote his vitriolic pamphlets against the Scriptures was a few years ago being used as a Bible repositary.

Now that men not preachers of the gospel are endeavoring to bring about a new departure in this important matter, the church, while rejoicing over the fact, should not neglect to do its part. Some ministers are preaching special sermons on familiarity with and closer study of the Bible. There should be a general movement on the part of each to urge upon all church goers the importance of giving more earnest attention to what has been written, and less to political and other agitations.

ACTRESS LASHES EDITOR.

Alleged Undesirable Alien Resents Hostile Criticism.

Vancouver, B. C., Feb. 9.—Marie Lloyd, English music hall, comedienne, Saturday horsewhipped Louis D. Taylor, editor of the Vancouver World and one time Mayor of this city, following a criticism of her acts and songs in a local theatre, where she was the attraction last week.

Miss Lloyd and a companion found Mr. Taylor in his office, and when he smilingly admitted that he was the editor, she drew a thick leather strap from her muff and struck him several times over the head.

Miss Lloyd won in her fight for readmission to the United States. First held up at New York some time ago on the ground that she was an undesirable alien, she finally was permitted to enter the country under a $4,000 bond to leave it at the end of her theatrical engagement.

When she reached the Far West she slipped over the line into Canada, and was not permitted to re-enter the United States. The United States Bureau of Immigration yesterday, however, ruled that she might do so on renewal of her bond.

"THE TWO SALVATIONS."

M. G. Ellis, of Washington, Delivers Address in Surprise Theatre Last Night.

The interesting subject of the "Two Salvations for the human race," was discovered upon by Mr. M. G. Ellis, of Washington, D. C., at the Surprise Theatre in this city last night.

The speaker relied upon quotations from the scriptures to strengthen his subject and said that Salvations meant saving from death and attaining everlasting life upon either the spiritual or the human plane.

He said that the only offer now open to mankind is life upon the spiritual plane, that is attaining the condition like unto angels, and that this offer began at the first advent of our Lord Jesus Christ and would close at the end of the Gospel Age which, he declared, the Bible proved was very near at hand. After that he had stated that the offer of everlasting life upon the human plane would be open to and offered to all the balance of the human race, not only to those who were alive, when the offer was made, but he said all who were in their graves would be awakened and given a chance to attain everlasting life on this earth, as human beings. He quoted various scriptures to this end, one being John 5:28-29—"Marvel not at this: for the hour is coming in which all that are in their graves shall hear the voice of the son of man and come forth, they that have done good unto the resurrection of life, and they that have done evil unto the resurrection of judgment. He said that this judgment would last for 1000 years and that all who wished would have one full chance for life never ending; that during that 1000 years the entire earth would become Paradise, and that the only Paradise which had ever been was the small garden of Eden occupied by Adam and Eve before they fell. He explained that Paradise meant a perfect earthly condition and not Heaven. He went on to show that during this 1000-year judgment the devil and his evil influence would be restrained, and all human beings trying to obey the perfect law of God, and thus obtain everlasting life would be rewarded for all good deeds and punished for all wrong doings contrasting this with present conditions, in which mankind is not always punished for evil and not rewarded for efforts to do good. The speaker went on to say that all would not attain everlasting life and quoted scripture to show that every human being, after having a full, fair chance under most favorable conditions to attain this life in the second death, from which their is no awakening. He also said that God has a due time for everything, and when it becomes his due time to enlighten all, he will establish his kingdom on earth and bless all the families of the earth through it.

Successful Everywhere.

A Neglected Cold Often Affects the Lungs

Many serious cases of Throat or Lung Trouble can be directly traced to a cough or cold which has been neglected. If you notice that a cough persists in clinging to you take warning. If you neglect trying to stop this supposed trivial trouble the throat and lungs later become affected. In many cases Eckman's Alterative has been the means of bringing permanent relief. Investigate this case:—

Saratoga, N. Y.

"Gentlemen: For five or six years I was troubled with cough and expectoration. I also had a high fever. My case was declared Lung Trouble by my physician. I was given Cod Liver Oil, Creosote and other medicines, all without benefit. At Christmas time, 1906, I was not expected to live. Calling Dr. R. H. McCarthy, he advised the use of Eckman's Alterative, which I took with excellent results. I have gained in weight, go out in all weathers and have had no cough or cold whatever. I give these facts to encourage others to use Eckman's Alterative."

(Affidavit) JAS. W. KANALY.

Eckman's Alterative has been proven by many years test to be most efficacious for severe Throat and Lung Affections, Bronchitis, Bronchial Asthma, Stubborn Colds and in upbuilding the system. Contains no narcotics, poisons or habit forming drugs. Ask for booklet telling of recoveries, and write to Eckman Laboratory, Philadelphia, Pa., for evidence. For sale by all leading druggists

SIGH HURLS BUTTON TO EYE.

Prominent Man Probably Blinded From Stroke of Fifty Years.

Pittsburgh, Feb. 9.—Finishing a splendid dinner Friday, J. E. Jones, a wealthy real estate man, weighing 250 pounds, contentedly heaved a long-drawn sigh, and thereby tore a button from his vest with such force that it split in fragments, one of pieces sticking his friend, Christopher Smith, with whom he was dining, in the left eye and probably destroying the sight. The other pieces caught Smith on the cheek and opened up a deep wound, which took three stitches to close.

Jones and Smith had just finished dining in a Diamond street cafe when the accident happened, and after the repast was finished they had settled themselves back for a smoke when Jones heaved the sigh and the accident occurred.

Jones is a member of the Academy of Science and Art and prominent in business circles.

BURIED A WEEK IN SNOW.

Banker And Three Companions Have Thrilling Experience in Nevada.

Reno, Feb. 9.—A quartet of men, including R. D. Hawley, a banker and mining investor, with three companions from the East, while exploring during a pleasure trip on Peavine Mountain range north of here, were caught in the record-breaking snowstorms which recently almost buried towns and suspended transportation of all sorts. They were in their tent, buried under 12 feet of snow near the summit, and did not see the light of day for a week. The party had skis, and one of them, when the provisions ran short and hunger drove them out for game, crossed his skis and fell, badly spraining his knee. He was laid up in the snow-buried tent indefinitely from this injury.

While imprisoned within their tent the adventureres were compelled to a great measure to imitate the Esquimo. Well supplied with clothing and ammunition, they could hear the disturbing prowlings and groaning of cougars as they occasionally approached the partly-dug snow tunnel, which later was the means of the party's exit from the tent to the outer world.

With the present unusual depth of snow it required 14 hours for Hawley to reach the nearest camp. This is the first experience of the kind in the history of the State.

At Matewan, W. Va., late Saturday night Dan Adams and D. Ackermann shot and killed each other in "Bob" Buskerk's saloon. The men had a difficulty over a card game several days ago, and when they met Saturday night in the saloon both opened fire at the same time. Adams fell mortally wounded at the first shot. But he raised himself up on elbow and fired nine shots into Ackerman. Adams leaves a widow and three children. Ackermann leaves an invalid widow.

For the first time since their memorable first fight on the floor of the United States Senate thirteen years ago, Senator B. R. Tillman and former Senator John L. McLaurin met and shook hands at Columbia, S. C., Saturday evening. Senator Tillman was in Columbia testifying before a committee of the legislature. He chanced to meet McLaurin, now a state Senator, in a corridor of the State capitol. Witnesses say that after a moment of seeming hesitation both men, once warm friends, later bitter enemies, impulsively approached each other with outstretched hands. They chatted for several minutes and seemed to enjoy the reunion.

Mr. Frank C. Steward, President,

Dear Sir:

I wish to offer you my hearty congratulations upon the really remarkable success of Steward's Business College. I know of no institution in Washington in the last twenty years that has made such wonderful strides in such a short space of time as your college has. It is possible, however, that when one thoroughly understands your methods that your phenomenal growth will not seem so remarkable, and I believe that as people become to understand it your future growth will be greater than your past and present.

Assuring you of my wishes that my prophecy will come true, I am
Most sincerely yours, R. P. ANDREWS,

HANGS HIMSELF TO DOOR.

Other Lodgers Waste Time Seeking Aid and Suicide Succeeds.

Philadelphia, Pa., Feb. 7.—Delay while occupants of the house ran for a policeman, probably caused the death last night of James Breklira, 67 years old, who was found hanging by a rope in his room in a lodging house at No. 415 North Third street. When the body was finally cut down it was still warm, but the physicians declared that life was extinct. They told the police that if the persons who discovered the body had cut the man down when he was discovered his life probably would have been saved.

FREED OF ANCIENT LYNCHING.

Man Confessing Crime of 27 Years Ago Released by Grand Jury.

Decatur, Ill., Feb. 7.—Reason Trigg was today released from the Monticell, Ill., jail by order of the Platt County grand jury. Trigg recently confessed that he helped lynch Henry Wildman, wife slayer, at Monticello, 27 years ago. Conscience-stricken, he gave himself up to the authorities.

"I am content and my conscience has been satisfied,' 'said Trigg as he walked out of jail.

He will return to his farm.

WORM IN EAR KILLS BOY.

Unique Case in Which Most Unusual Remedies Fail to Relieve.

Pennsburg, Pa., Feb. 7.—A tiny seed worm in his ear caused the death of Monroe, 9-year-old son of Mrs. Rosa Ward, of Spinnerstown, near here, and the case is said by physicians to be one of the strangest on record.

Three years ago while the lad was sleeping under a tree near the house, the worm crawled in his ear. The same evening the boy complained of pain and insisted that something was "eating" in his head. A physician was called and the boy was kept upon a pillow of sod for four weeks, in an endeavor to coax the worm out of the ear, but without avail.

Total blindness followed soon afterward, caused, it is believed, by the worm feeding on the optic nerve. An X-ray machine revealed the moving worm far in the boy's head. The worm was finally removed by alcohol injections, but the lad grew steadily weaker and death followed.

DUAL TRAGEDY ON STREET.

Husband Kills Wife Then Shoots Himself Through Heart.

Atlanga, Ga., Feb. 9.—A. J. amoson, a traveling salesman of this city, late Friday shot and killed his wife and then committed suicide by sending a bullet through his heart. The tragedy occurred near the intersection of Trinity Avenue and Whitehall street, in the heart of the city, just at dusk.

So far as known there were few witnesses. According to one man who claims to have seen the killing, Amoson and his wife, who was young and attractive, engaged in a brief conversation, then the man drew a revolver and fired several times. the woman fell to the sidewalk and Amoson, turned the weapon upon himself, firing two shots, one of which passed through his heart.

It is said that the couple separated several weeks ago, and that since then Mrs. Amoson steadfastly refused to see her husband.
